

A Winter Weekend Getaway in Yankton

Winter in Yankton is the perfect time to slow down, reconnect, and enjoy a cozy weekend escape filled with scenic views, great food, and small-town charm. Whether you're looking for outdoor adventure, local history, or relaxing moments by the fire, this winter itinerary offers the perfect balance of exploration and comfort for a memorable getaway.

FRIDAY

Start your weekend by checking into a cozy cabin at Lewis and Clark Resort. Enjoy the serene winter views of the lake and the peaceful atmosphere that makes for a perfect retreat. After settling in, head to Charlie's Pizza House, a Yankton staple renowned for its signature crust, celebrity inspired pizzas, and welcoming ambiance. Wrap up your evening with a visit to Cottonwood Shipwreck Bar for a nightcap and live music before heading back to your cabin.

SATURDAY

Start your day with a delicious, scratch-made breakfast at Willa B's, where the cozy atmosphere is the perfect setup for a winter morning. After fueling up, immerse yourself in Yankton's natural beauty with a refreshing morning walk across the iconic Meridian Bridge, offering stunning river views, or head to the Lewis and Clark Recreation Area for outdoor adventures like snowshoeing or cross-country skiing.

For lunch, indulge in the creative burger creations at Bro Brgr Bar, known for its mouthwatering and unique menu. In the afternoon, stay warm indoors with a visit to the Mead Museum where you can uncover Yankton's fascinating history through engaging exhibits. Museums not your thing? Explore the charming shops of the Meridian District for a bit of local flair and treasures.

Head to The Boathouse where you can enjoy delicious food while testing your skills at axe throwing, golf simulators, and classic arcade games. Finally, retreat to your cozy cabin to unwind with board games by the fire, taking time to reconnect and cherish the peaceful ambiance together.
