

Fall Family Hunting Getaway IN YANKTON

November is the perfect time to combine outdoor adventure with cozy family time in Yankton! Whether you're here for pheasant or deer hunting - or simply to soak up the crisp fall air - Yankton offers the best of both worlds: exceptional outdoor recreation and plenty of comfortable, family-friendly lodging options.

DAY 1: ARRIVE & SETTLE IN

Welcome to Yankton! Start your adventure by checking into your perfect stay - whether that's a lakeside cabin at Midway Gulch Campground, an RV site at Lewis & Clark Recreation Area, or one of Yankton's spacious Airbnbs or group lodges.

After settling in, stretch your legs with a sunset stroll along the Meridian Bridge, offering incredible views of the Missouri River. When it's time for dinner, treat the family to one of Yankton's local favorites - explore dining options here.

DAY 2: HUNTING & EXPLORING

Rise early for a morning hunt! The Yankton area offers abundant public hunting access for pheasant, waterfowl, and deer, with a mix of grasslands, river bluffs, and farmland habitat. Need a few local insights or access maps? Contact Visit Yankton - we're happy to help point you in the right direction!

After your morning outdoors, refuel with lunch at Czeckers Sports Bar & Grill or Bro Brgr Bar - both great family-friendly spots. Then, spend the afternoon exploring:

- Take a peaceful hike along the Gavins Point Nature Trail
- Learn a new skill at the NFAA Easton Archery Center
- Or step back in time at the Mead Cultural Education Center

Wrap up your day with a cozy bonfire or family game night back at your cabin or campsite.

DAY 3: FISHING & FAMILY FUN

Before heading home, make time for a little fishing along the Missouri River or below Gavins Point Dam, where anglers reel in walleye, catfish, and smallmouth bass year-round. The kids will love spotting pelicans, eagles, and other wildlife along the riverbanks.

Enjoy a hearty brunch at a local café downtown before you hit the road - or stay another night to savor one more peaceful sunset over Lewis & Clark Lake.
