

Relaxing Retreat

for the retired RV-ers

*Come for an entire week and really experience what Yankton has to offer!
This is how we recommend spending your extended time here.*

SUNDAY ARRIVAL

Settle into one of Yankton's scenic campgrounds at Lewis and Clark Lake or along the Missouri River. The weekend camping crowds will be gone, which gives you a better chance to get on that sweet spot right on the water! Fall asleep to the sound of the river, wake up with the sunrise, and spend your days exploring everything this stretch of the Missouri has to offer - fishing, paddling, hiking, or simply doing absolutely nothing. It's the kind of slow, easy living that recharges the soul.

Pro-Tip: Book your campsite 90 days prior to your arrival to you can choose the kind of site that fits you best!*

Relaxing Retreat for the retired RV-ers

ALL WEEK LONG

Try our variety of local cuisines, stroll around the Meridian District to see unique shops and historical architecture, and catch some live music if the timing is right. Visit local museums and art galleries, catch walleye, go bird-watching, and get some rounds of golf in.

Trails & Hikes:

After morning coffee, head into town early to catch the sun rise over the Missouri River from the vantage point of the historic Meridian Pedestrian Bridge.

Take an evening stroll on the paved walking path that follows the curves of Lewis and Clark Lake. Take in the sunset as it reflects off the Missouri River and turns the chalkstone bluffs into a mesmerizing golden color.

For a mix of history and outdoor adventure, head to Spirit Mound, where Lewis & Clark once explored, or take a leisurely hike on the Gavins Point Nature Trail.

History & Tours:

Take our self-guided historic walking tour, consisting of historical landmarks and turn-of-the-century architecture, or immerse yourself in the extraordinary expedition of Lewis & Clark and the fascinating history of the Dakota Hospital for the Insane at the Mead Museum.

SATURDAY

Time to head home - but come back soon! Keep an eye on upcoming events, and plan your next getaway filled with outdoor fun, local eats, and small-town charm. See you soon!
