

Spring Fever Weekend

in Yankton

Winter is finally giving way to sunshine, and it's time to get outside and shake off that cabin fever! Whether you're craving adventure, family fun, or just a relaxing weekend away, Yankton is the perfect place to welcome spring.

FRIDAY: SETTLE IN & SAVOR LOCAL FLAVORS

Check-in & Get Cozy: Arrive in Yankton and settle into one of our charming hotels, vacation rentals, or a riverside cabin.

Food Truck Bites & Family Fun: Head to Ben's Brew Station where you can grab a bite from a local food truck, enjoy local brews, arcade games, and enjoy a laid-back evening.

Games & Good Times: After dinner, The Boat House is the perfect spot to unwind with pizza, pool tables, golf simulators, and even axe throwing for those feeling adventurous.

SATURDAY: OUTDOOR ADVENTURES & OLYMPIC SIZED OPPORTUNITIES

Breakfast at Willa B's: Start the day with a farm fresh breakfast and a fresh cup of coffee.

Hit the Trails: Take in the beauty of spring with a bike ride or scenic walk across the Meridian Bridge, then explore the paved trails along the Missouri River. Picnic & Hiking at the Lake: Pack a picnic lunch and head to Lewis & Clark Recreation Area for an afternoon of hiking, skipping rocks, and soaking in the first signs of spring.

NFAA Easton Archery Center: Test your skills at the world's largest archery center. Open year round to visitors, all experience levels are welcome! With Olympic sized ranges, you might even run into an Olympic athlete or two!

Dinner at Charlie's: After a day of adventure, enjoy a family-friendly dinner at Charlie's Pizza - a local favorite with delicious pizza and a welcoming atmosphere.

CHARLIE'S PIZZA

Spring Fever Weekend in Yankton

SUNDAY: BRUNCH & ONE LAST ADVENTURE

Brunch at Fryn' Pan: Before heading home, stop at Fryn' Pan for a classic, hearty breakfast to fuel the day's last adventure.

Hands-On History: Visit the Mead Cultural Education Center to explore Yankton's history with exhibits that are fun for all ages.

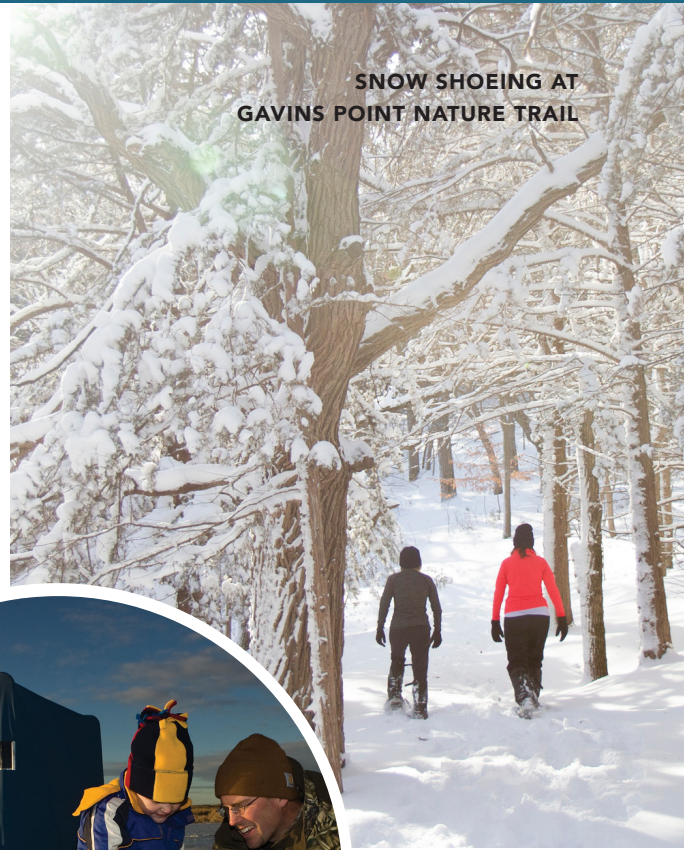

Time to Head Home - But Come Back Soon!

Spring in Yankton is just getting started! Keep an eye on upcoming events, and plan your next getaway filled with outdoor fun, local eats, and small-town charm. See you soon!

However you choose to spend the weekend, spring in Yankton is all about fresh air, new energy, and making the most of longer days.

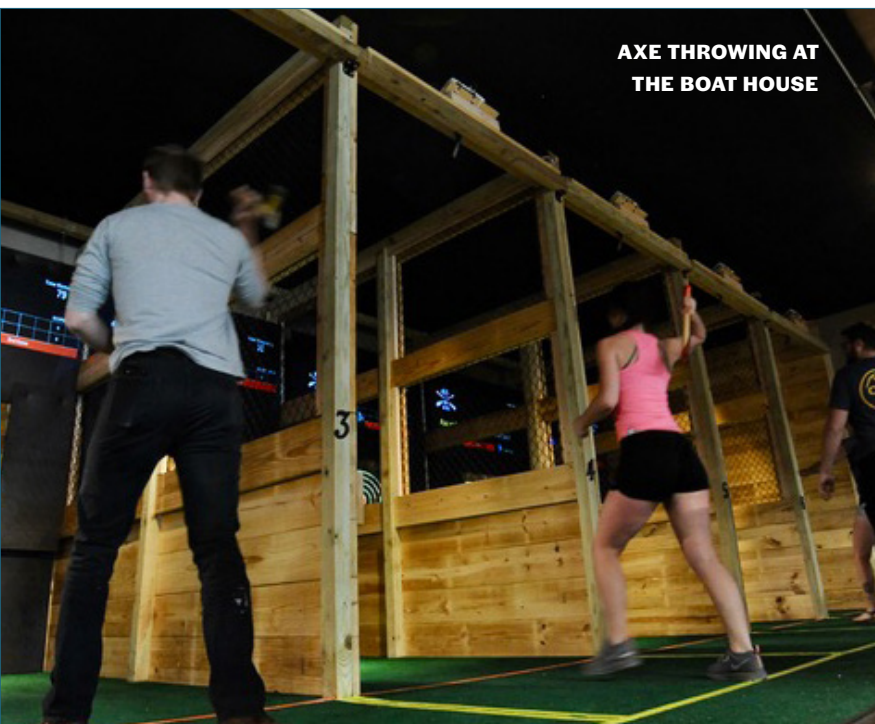

Use this itinerary as your guide, then explore a little more, linger a little longer, and create your own perfect spring getaway.

SNOW SHOEING AT
GAVINS POINT NATURE TRAIL

ICE FISHING

AXE THROWING AT THE BOAT HOUSE

RIVERSIDE PARK TRAIL

